KAHOOT! QUIZ IMPORTER

ROUND 1: FOR OOM PIET (DOWLING)

1. Stanza 1: The toddler leading the mother across the road is an example of:

A) Antithesis

B) Hyperbole

C) Role Inversion (CORRECT)

D) Personification

2. Oom Piet uses tones for "bilious dogs." What does "bilious" mean here?

A) Aggressive or rabid

B) Sickly or nauseous (CORRECT)

C) Overly affectionate

D) Loud and barking

3. The line "You guessed" implies what about Oom Piet?

A) He incorrectly assumed why she was crying.

B) He was playing a game to entertain the toddler.

C) He guessed her daughter's name incorrectly.

D) He intuitively understood her pain without prying. (CORRECT)

4. The repetition of hissing sounds in "the sense of a rescue" is called:

A) Assonance

B) Consonance

C) Alliteration

D) Sibilance (CORRECT)

🔥 BONUS (Double Points): What is the concept of Theoxeny?

A) Sacred, unbreakable Greek law of guest-host hospitality.

B) A humble stranger reveals themselves as a disguised deity. (CORRECT)

C) A god suddenly appears to resolve a hopeless situation.

D) The act of making offerings to household ancestors.

ROUND 2: THE HERB GARDEN (GRAY)

1. "Before I was ready". Literally, unready to garden. Metaphorically:

A) Unprepared for the physical labor of maintaining a home.

B) Emotionally unready for her death and imposed legacy. (CORRECT)

C) Unforgiving of his mother for rigid English traditions.

D) Unwilling to accept his own aging process.

2. The "heart-stopping drought" is primarily a metaphor for:

A) Devastating effects of climate change in South Africa.

B) The emotional barrenness and numbness of grief. (CORRECT)

C) The speaker's literal lack of tears at the funeral.

D) The physical withering of the herb garden after her death.

3. Sensory imagery of mint/sage on fingers/nails demonstrates:

A) The physical exhaustion of maintaining a dying garden.

B) Her memory has become an inseparable, physical experience. (CORRECT)

C) The harshness of the South African soil resisting plants.

D) He is trying to wash away the physical memory of grief.

4. What is the structural significance of the single full stop at the end?

A) It creates a caesura that forces the reader to pause.

B) It signals a shift from an elegiac to a narrative tone.

C) It represents the absolute finality of physical death. (CORRECT)

D) It indicates the speaker has finally forgotten his mother.

🔥 BONUS (Double Points): What defines an elegy?

A) A speech delivered at a funeral praising the deceased.

B) An impassioned, unstructured outpouring of raw grief.

C) A structured poem, typically a lament for the dead. (CORRECT)

D) A musical composition or mass for the dead.

ROUND 3: THE POET (SHAKESPEARE)

1. This excerpt regarding the poet, lover, and lunatic is from which play?

A) Macbeth

B) The Tempest

C) A Midsummer Night's Dream (CORRECT)

D) Romeo and Juliet

2. Theseus describes the poet's eye rolling in a "fine frenzy." This is a:

A) Paradox

B) Hyperbole

C) Oxymoron (CORRECT)

D) Metonymy

3. The original Greek word "Poiesis" translates directly to:

A) Dreaming

B) Speaking

C) Feeling

D) Making (CORRECT)

4. "Gives to airy nothing a local habitation..." relies on what device?

A) Sibilance

B) Antithesis

C) Paradox (CORRECT)

D) Hyperbole

🔥 BONUS (Double Points): What is the deep irony of Duke Theseus delivering this speech?

A) He uses fairy magic to deliver his ruling on rationality.

B) He claims to be the only sane person while hallucinating.

C) A strict rationalist uses soaring poetry to mock poetry. (CORRECT)

D) He praises the poet's imagination while executing lovers.

ROUND 4: FILM LITERACY & VISUAL CODING

1. Filmmakers construct meaning; viewers interpret via personal context:

A) Denotation and Connotation

B) Index and Icon

C) Encoding and Decoding (CORRECT)

D) Mise-en-scène and Setting

2. Which lighting simulates a character losing reality to a dream state?

A) Low Key Lighting (suspenseful, soft shadows)

B) Back Lighting (mysterious silhouette)

C) Overexposure (aggressively wash out details) (CORRECT)

D) High Key Lighting (strong contrast/intensity)

3. Which role uses "leitmotifs" for emotional depth & character continuity?

A) The Editor

B) The Director

C) The Composer (CORRECT)

D) The Producer

4. Which technique establishes dominance and vulnerability without words?

A) Overexposure

B) High and Low Camera Angles (CORRECT)

C) Extreme Close-Ups

D) Leitmotifs

ROUND 5: PHILOSOPHY & THE SCREEN

1. Proving the speaker in a poem exists tests how you verify knowledge:

A) Axiology

B) Epistemology (CORRECT)

C) Metaphysics

D) Logic

2. Analyzing fundamental rules of reality in films (The Matrix) utilizes:

A) Epistemology

B) Axiology

C) Metaphysics (CORRECT)

D) Logic

3. Characters debating reality (Paprika) vs. breaking 4th wall (Deadpool):

A) Meta / Literal

B) Literal / Meta (CORRECT)

C) Symbolic / Literal

D) Literal / Symbolic

4. Analyzing how a character reasons vs. what they fundamentally value is:

A) Epistemology / Metaphysics

B) Logic / Axiology (CORRECT)

C) Utility / Deontology

D) Axiology / Logic

🔥 BONUS (Double Points): "I avoid AI because it makes me stagnant, not flourishing." Which frame?

A) Utility (The Math)

B) Relational (The Bond)

C) Deontology (The Rule)

D) Virtue (The Character) (CORRECT)

ROUND 6: THE TEMPEST (ACTS 1 & 2) - THE GAUNTLET

🔥 1 (Double Points): Why did Sycorax imprison Ariel in a pine tree for 12 years?

A) Ariel plotted with Caliban to steal her magical texts.

B) Ariel was too delicate for her abhorred commands. (CORRECT)

C) Ariel attempted to warn ships away, ruining her spells.

D) Ariel refused to acknowledge her authority over the isle.

🔥 2 (Double Points): What is Antonio's logic to convince Sebastian to assassinate Alonso?

A) The island's magic will erase Gonzalo's memory.

B) Alonso's men are planning mutiny; Sebastian will be a hero.

C) Ferdinand is dead, Claribel is too far away to claim it. (CORRECT)

D) Prospero secretly promised to legitimize Sebastian's rule.

🔥 3 (Double Points): When Trinculo finds Caliban, what is his immediate capitalistic thought?

A) He believes Caliban is a deity and bargains for passage.

B) He considers taking him to England to exhibit for money. (CORRECT)

C) He assumes Caliban is a wealthy merchant he can easily rob.

D) He thinks Caliban is a demon sent to punish his sins.

🔥 4 (Double Points): Why does Prospero immediately treat Ferdinand harshly and enslave him?

A) He genuinely fears Ferdinand is a spy plotting with Antonio.

B) He is testing Ariel's loyalty by ordering him to torment him.

C) He is overcome with rage upon seeing his enemy's son.

D) He wants courtship to be hard so he values Miranda highly. (CORRECT)